Meredith College Archives Access Policies

Meredith College Archives is a department of Carlyle Campbell Library at Meredith College in Raleigh, N.C. The Dean of the Library and Head of Technical Services are responsible for its operation. We support research of Meredith College students, faculty, staff, alumnae, and outside researchers. Please ask if you have questions about the following policies regarding use of materials:

♦Requests from media representatives (including but not limited to newspaper, magazines, television, and radio) must be made through the Director of Marketing at Meredith College.
♦Requests for College records pursuant to legal proceedings of any kind will be referred to the Director of Marketing at Meredith College.
♦Researchers will be asked to show photo identification, to sign the Archives guest register, and to furnish information at the bottom of this page.
♦Not all records are available to researchers. Some records have restrictions placed on their use by statute, by the donor, by the office of origin, or by College policy. Additionally, Archives staff may restrict the use of unprocessed or fragile materials.
♦Materials housed in Archives do not circulate and must be used in the Archives area in the presence of Archives staff. Meredith College archival materials are not available through Interlibrary Loan.
♦Food and/or beverages are not permitted in Archives.
♦Researchers agree to handle materials carefully and to use only pencils for making notes. Researchers may be asked to wear cotton gloves. We will provide pencils and gloves.
♦Researchers may use laptop computers and digital cameras in Archives.
♦Because of the age of our materials, photocopying and scanning are done by Archives staff. Researchers may be charged a small fee for copies and scans. We reserve the right to limit the number of copies and/or to refuse requests for reproduction of materials. Reproduction does not constitute permission to publish.
♦It is the researcher's responsibility to follow U. S. copyright law, Title 17, United States Code, available at <http://www.loc.gov/copyright/title17/>
♦No unpublished item from Meredith College Archives can be published without express permission from the Head of Technical Services. A written request for permission to publish is required. Researchers who publish works using Meredith College archival materials agree to donate one copy to the Archives.
♦Any display or any other use of material, whether original or reproduced, from Meredith College Archives must be accompanied by the following statement:
